Get a Card

Henderson County residents and those who work, own property, or attend school in the county can acquire a library card at no charge. Applicants must appear in person at one of the library branches [1] and present proper identification, a picture ID with a current address. A parent or Guardian must be present for a child under 14 to be issued a card. Replacement fee for a lost card is $2. A non-resident may purchase a card for $20 per year.

All Henderson County Public School, Fernleaf Charter School, and The Mountain Community School students and teachers automatically have a free account with Henderson County Public Library. Learn more about StudentAccess [2].
